ALGONQUIN COLLEGE

ONLINE SYNCHRONOUS and ON-CAMPUS options available in 2021!

TEACH ENGLISH

as a Second/Foreign Language in Canada and abroad

Establish a rewarding and long-term career using your liberal arts, humanities, or social sciences degree. Algonquin College in Ottawa offers Teachers of English as a Second/Foreign Language program with full- and part-time options, on-campus or online synchronous, to help you gain access to numerous employment opportunities in teaching ESL/EFL in Canada and overseas.

This graduate certificate offers both theoretical and practical courses with practicum opportunities around the world and in Canada.

In only two semesters, you will learn about:

- classroom management
- lesson planning
- teaching techniques
- curriculum design
- assessment and evaluation
- teaching languages online

Registration is open for Spring and Fall 2021!
Apply online at www.ontariocolleges.ca

This program is eligible for student loans and grants under Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP)

For further information, contact Program Coordinator Dmitri Priven at 613-727-4723 ext. 5018 or by email at privend@algonquincollege.com or visit https://www.algonquincollege.com/languages/program/teachers-of-english-as-a-second-foreign-language/

This program is recognized by TESL Ontario and TESL Canada