	Date and Remarks	Orders of the Tribunal
	Item No. 01 November 23, 2015	Though, this case does not relate to throwing of Municipal Solid Waste on the railway tracks, or its use for defecation by human beings, even dead animals are found lying near the tracks. The case i.e. Original Application No. 141 of 2014, Saloni Singh & Anr. Vs. Union of India & Ors. is fixed on 07th December, 2015. But keeping in view the miserable condition that is prevailing despite specific orders of the Tribunal, we are of the considered view that some urgent action needs be taken against the erring Authorities or the persons engaged for conducting the work. We appoint Mr. Sanjay Upadhyay, Advocate as a Local Commissioner who very graciously agreed to execute the commission without even fees. He shall visit the site - New Delhi Railway Station today itself. Let Learned Local Commissioner's Report be submitted to the Tribunal. He is at liberty to prepare videography or take photographs on his own. He shall be accompanied by the Learned Counsel appearing for the Railways. All proper arrangements including security should be provided forthwith. The Learned Local Commissioner submits that he will go just now. Let the Report be filed within three days from today. List the matter on 22nd December, 2015. .....,CP (Swatanter Kumar) .....,JM (M.S. Nambiar) .....,EM (B.S. Sajwan) .....,EM (Ranjan Chatterjee)
