

Practical Solutions to Achieving Success in Equity in Design and Construction

Join us and be uplifted by words of triumph and success, from trailblazers in the Design & Construction industry. Listen as they share their career paths, experiences and genuine advice around diversity and inclusion. Be inspired, as a newcomer to this industry or an experienced professional to lead as an advocate of truth and equity. You don't want to miss these pearls of wisdom. In addition to candid dialogue, this will be a moderated panel where the audience will be given the opportunity to ask questions of the panelist.
