Emily Avelar put in an ace and an assist, while Ava Olsen walloped in an ace and had a dig. Sabrina Sabino pulled out a dig and put up a solo block. Ava Gaidar earned 2 assists, Teagan Clause smacked in an attack, Aylin Lagunas served up an ace, and finally both Abby Papas and Grace Durante had 2 aces apiece.

Scholastic Bowl Try-Outs (open to all 6th, 7th, and 8th-grade students) will be held next Friday (January 31) after school in Mrs. Stein's Room (101). The Try-Out will include taking a grueling 200 question test over a multitude of topics including but not limited to the following: geography, music, math, spelling, pop culture, current events, history, literature, science, home economics, and health! If you are a strong math student who can do super fast "multiple-step" mental math, we NEED you to try out!! The students with the top 10 scores will comprise the 2020 Scholastic Bowl Trivia Team! Practices for the Scholasti-Cats will be held after school on Mondays and Thursdays until 4:00 P.M. and competitions will begin in March. Students who are currently on the math, spelling, volleyball, basketball or upcoming track teams are still encouraged to try out! Schedules are flexible, and we can make it work. See Mrs. Stein if you have questions.

Art Club members: We will meet to finish our current project on Tuesday, January 28. Plan on meeting until 4:00 in the art room.

Yearbook order forms are due by Friday, January 31. If you are not sure if a yearbook has been ordered for you, stop in the office. Extra forms are in the office.

7th Graders: Don't leave your belongings on the floor in front of your locker. If your things are missing, check with teachers in that hallway; they may have picked them up.
