

BEECHER JUNIOR HIGH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday, March 22, 2019

The Scholasti-Cats traveled to Grant Park yesterday to face an ambitious team of Dragons who defeated the Varsity 155-210. However, the JV cats rebounded and won the second match 135-125. Hayden Mohr and Andrew Hering both scored FOUR correct Toss-Up questions; Cadence Johnson scored THREE, and Ethan Mohr, Lucas Henchel, and Chloe Zurek each scored ONE. The Cats will resume their season with the last conference home match against Manteno on Tuesday, April 2.

Students interested in the annual School Bus Safety Poster Contest may stop in the office for more information. The 2019 Poster Theme is "Red Lights Mean Stop!".

Can you sing, dance, juggle, or do magic? If you can, or you have some other special talent, sign up for the 4th Annual Beecher Jr. High School Talent Show! You may sign up as a solo performer, a pair, or a group. There is a $5.00 entry fee per performance and you can sign up in Miss DeYoung's room. The Talent Show will be held in the gym in the afternoon on Friday, April 12.

Volleyball players should turn in their uniforms to the office. Put clean uniforms in a bag with your name on the outside.
