

The Human Dimensions Working Group, Native People’s Wildlife Management Working Group, & Urban Wildlife Working Group present:

Conceptualizing and Measuring Relevancy: Using Social Science to Broaden Support for Wildlife Conservation

A Symposium at The Wildlife Society’s 2022 Annual Conference in Spokane, WA

Featuring:

Lincoln Larson, North Carolina State University
Matt Dunfee, Wildlife Management Institute
Kristina Slagle, The Ohio State University
Alia Dietsch, The Ohio State University
Joe Caudell, Indiana Dept of Natural Resources
Charlie Nilon, University of Missouri

Monique Wynecoop, U.S. Dept of Agriculture
Celina Gray, University of Montana
Maureen Murray, Lincoln Park Zoo
Jennifer Owen-White & Ariel Elliott, Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge
Cynthia Jacobson, Innovative Outcomes

Join us for a vibrant discussion!
Wed, November 9th, 1:30 - 5:00 pm PST
Spokane Conference Center, Room 206C

