

First National Tribal Carnival on Oct 25

For establishing a sense of inclusiveness amongst tribals, the government is organising a National Tribal Carnival here, which will be inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on October 25.

The carnival will feature workshops on Panchayats (Extension to Scheduled Areas) Act, Forest Rights Act (FRA) and reservation in politics among others, Tribal Affairs Ministers Jual Oram told reporters here.

"The idea of the carnival was conceived by Modiji and we are organising this carnival to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst tribals," he said.

The carnival will provide platform to tribals to showcase and promote various facets of their culture and especially their skills on a large scale, he added.

Exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of this event, he said.

Faggan Singh Kulaste, Kiren Rijju and Vishnu Deo Sai are among others who are likely attend the four-day carnival.

"I have personally spoken to all tribal MPs, central and state tribal ministers and formal ministers and have invited them to the carnival," he added.

About 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival.

Business Standard

Prime Minister to inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival on October 25, 2016

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi will inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, 2016. This was announced by Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram in New Delhi today while addressing a press conference. He said the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Shri Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale. The Minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes." Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event. The Minister said, "Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)-its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival".

Shri Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc. The carnival promises to be a mix of art, music, traditional food and one of its kind of non-stop venue for lively entertainment of India's traditional tribal way of life full of experience and knowledge". Shri Oram said "I have personally spoken to all tribal MPs, Central and State Tribal Ministers and former Ministers and have invited them to the Carnival". The Minister said about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival. Besides, eminent tribal personalities who have excelled in various fields i.e. sports, art and culture, literature, academic, medicine etc. have also been invited.

Government to hold biggest-ever tribal carnival next week

NEW DELHI: In a major outreach exercise, the BJP government is rolling out the biggest-ever tribal carnival in India next week. Working on the directives of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the tribal affairs ministry would host a fourday event in the capital drawing close to 65,000 tribal delegates and artistes from all over India.

The National Tribal Carnival would be organised from October 25 to 28 and would see the participation of the Prime Minister, state chief ministers, tribal MPs, former BJP MPs and MLAs from tribaldominated constituencies, sitting tribal MPs, BJP state presidents of ST cell.

Though a cultural carnival is an annual ministry fare, the event has been scaled up manifold after Modi's suggestion that this be converted into a socio-political exercise.

Though a cultural carnival is an annual ministry fare, the event has been scaled up manifold after Modi's suggestion that this be converted into a socio-political exercise.

The carnival will be inaugurated by Modi at Indira Gandhi Indoor stadium on October 25 and will see high-level discussions on tribal-related issues including implementation of Forest Rights Act and Panchayats Extension to Scheduled Areas (PESA) Act.

One of the key issues of deliberations would be reservation in politics, recruitment and service matters.

Speaking to ET, tribal affairs minister Jual Oram said, "The Prime Minister had directed us to organise this event to give a feeling of inclusivity to tribals in remote corners of India. I have personally involved all political parties. I have spoken to all tribal MPs and former ministers and sought their participation. We expect over 65,000 delegates and participants from across India."

The scale of the event can be gauged from the fact that states are running special trains for tribal delegates to Delhi. While Chhattisgarh has already booked a train, Jharkhand and Rajasthan are trying to work out details with Railway ministry. The ministry has already issued close to 70,000 railway concession passes. Ministry expects the most participation from Madhya Pradesh.

Most other BJP states — including Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan, Maharashtra, Gujarat — would send high number of delegates.

Modi to inaugurate 1st National Tribal Carnival on October 25

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the First National Tribal Carnival here on October 25, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram said today.

Addressing a press conference, Mr Oram said the main purpose of the carnival was to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals.

“The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes,” he added.

Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artefacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings and traditional healing practices will be part of the four day event.

“Workshops on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)- its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival,” Mr Oram said.

The events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion and book fair.

“I have personally spoken to all tribal MPs, Central and State Tribal Ministers and former Ministers and have invited them to the Carnival,” he said. About 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival. Beside, eminent tribal personalities who have excelled in various fields, sports, art and culture, literature, academics and medicine have also been invited.

Prime Minister to inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival on October 25, 2016

New Delhi, Oct 18, (Fast Mail):--Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, 2016. This was announced by Union Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram in New Delhi today while addressing a press conference. He said the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale. The Minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes." Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event. The Minister said, "Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)- its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival".

Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc. The carnival promises to be a mix of art, music, traditional food and one of its kind of non-stop venue for lively entertainment of India's traditional tribal way of life full of experience and knowledge". Shri Oram said "I have personally spoken to all tribal MPs, Central and State Tribal Ministers and formal Ministers and have invited them to the Carnival". The Minister said about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival. Beside, eminent tribal personalities who have excelled in various field i.e sports, art and culture, literature, academic, medicine etc. have also been invited.

PM to inaugurate 1st National Tribal Carnival on Oct 25

New Delhi, Oct 18 (UNI) Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25.

This was announced by Union Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram here today while addressing a press conference.

He said the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness among the tribals.

PM Modi will inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival: Jual Oram

Union Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram on Tuesday announced that Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in New Delhi on Oct 25th. He said, the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals across the country.

Oram said, the carnival will showcase various facets of tribal culture on a large scale. The idea of organising the Carnival is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills, he added.

The Minister said, about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival. Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event.

PM to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on Oct 25

October 19, 2016

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on 25th of this month. This was announced by Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram in New Delhi on Tuesday while addressing a press conference. He said, the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Mr Oram said, the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The Minister said, the idea of organising the Carnival is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills. Mr Oram said, about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival.

PM Modi to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival on Oct. 25

New Delhi [India], Oct. 18 : Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, which intends to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals.

Making the announcement, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes."

Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event.

Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)-its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival.

Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc.

PM to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on Oct 25

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on 25th of this month.

This was announced by Tribal Affairs Minister Jual Oram in New Delhi today while addressing a press conference. He said, the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Mr Oram said, the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The Minister said, the idea of organising the Carnival is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills. Mr Oram said, about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival.

PM Modi to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival on Oct. 25

New Delhi [India], Oct. 18 (ANI): Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, which intends to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals.

Making the announcement, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes."

Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event.

Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)-its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival.

Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi to inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25

New Delhi:- Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate First National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, 2016. This was announced by Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram in New Delhi today while addressing a press conference. He said the main purpose of this carnival is to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Shri Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The Minister said, “The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes.” Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event.

The Minister said, “Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)- its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival”.

Shri Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc. The carnival promises to be a mix of art, music, traditional food and one of its kind of non-stop venue for lively entertainment of India’s traditional tribal way of life full of experience and knowledge”. Shri Oram said “I have personally spoken to all tribal MPs, Central and State Tribal Ministers and formal Ministers and have invited them to the Carnival”.

The Minister said about 1600 tribal artists and around 15000 tribal delegates from across the country are expected to take part in the carnival. Beside, eminent tribal personalities who have excelled in various field i.e sports, art and culture, literature, academic, medicine etc. have also been invited.

PM Modi to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival on Oct. 25

Oct. 18 (ANI): Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, which intends to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals. Making the announcement, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale. The minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes."

Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc. will be part of the four day event.

Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)-its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival. Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc. (ANI)

PM Modi to inaugurate first National Tribal Carnival on Oct. 25

New Delhi [India], Oct. 18 : Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the first National Tribal Carnival in Delhi on October 25, which intends to promote a sense of inclusiveness amongst the tribals.

Making the announcement, Union Tribal Affairs Minister Shri Jual Oram said the carnival will showcase and promote various facets of tribal culture on a large scale.

The minister said, "The underlying idea is to preserve and promote various facets of the tribal life relating to culture, tradition, customs and their skills and to expose it to the general public with a view to utilizing the potential for overall holistic development of the Scheduled Tribes." Activities like displaying documents on traditional socio-culture aspects, exhibition of art/artifacts, cultural performances, demonstration of skills like sports, paintings, traditional healing practices etc.

will be part of the four day event. Workshop on issues like Panchayats (Extension to the Scheduled Areas) Act, 1996 (PESA)- its implementation, benefit to tribal community and its drawbacks, Forest Rights Act (FRA) 2006 and its implications and reservation in politics and recruitment will also be part of the carnival.

Oram informed that the events during the carnival will be a mix of live musical and dance performances, exhibitions, display of craft, fashion show, panel discussion, book fair etc.