

MEDIA RELEASE

11 May 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The QTV journey continues each Friday at 8.30pm as we near the end of Season 3.

We'll continue to bring you the best of Q+ world, along with all your regular favourites in this magazine-style TV program for the Q+ community of Melbourne, Geelong and Adelaide.

QTV is a news and currents affairs program screening on C31 every Friday night at 8.30pm.

Producer, Bill Calder says: "We'll take you up to Daylesford for the ChillOut Festival; and for the Australian record for the largest human rainbow; then we'll head over to Williamstown for the Miss Gay International 2020 competition.

"The Saturday Magazine team at JOY 94.9 gives a fascinating insight into the hot topics for our community. As well as more interviews with our community news breakers and the history segment."

QTV is repeated for the night owls, Mondays at 2.30am. If you don't have a TV with the reception to get C31, you can livestream: <https://www.c31.org.au/live>

Or YouTube. "QTV Melbourne"

NOTE - in a confusing twist, C31 is currently broadcast from channel 44.

Upcoming content: see next page ....

Friday 15 May

Featuring: Interview with ceramic artist Ursula Dutkiewicz who is passionate about re-forestation and using art to fund the planting of trees; the country hospitality and fun from Chill Out Festival in Daylesford; Derm Ryan and Rory Blundell talk about a state government initiative to support Q+ youth; And a look back at The Hub, an early attempt to provide a Q+ community centre.

Friday 22 May

Featuring: Interview with visual artist Fern Smith who uses her talents to bring about community change; Australia's first Guinness Book Record attempt at the largest Human Rainbow; Stuart Kollmorgan talks about the community dynamic planned for St Kilda's Pride Centre; And a look back at the AIDS Memorial Garden that provided a place for peaceful reflection.

Friday 29 May

Featuring: The life of Ralph Stratford - film buff and friend to many; the fun and glamour of the Miss Gay Australia International 2020 competition; And a look back at the Trish's Bar in North Melbourne, one of the first to stage drag shows.

Contact: Bill Calder

billcalder@hotmail.com

ph: 0412 330 027