

Joseph M. Smith Community Service Lifetime Achievement Award

Joseph M Smith was a longtime community leader/organizer in Allston Brighton and was instrumental in developing many of the community service organizations in existence today including the Allston Civic Association.

The award seeks to recognize a member of the Allston Brighton community who has devoted his or her life for the benefit of the community or its institutions.

Candidates must be a present or former resident of Allston Brighton or work or have worked in Allston Brighton.

Qualities for consideration: self-awareness, eagerness to learn and adapt, empathy, honesty and integrity, dedication, service, interpersonal skills, forward-thinking, intelligence, motivation. Voluntary work preferred but not required for consideration.

The award will be presented at the Allston Civic Association June meeting.

A one-page nomination letter that provides a brief biography of the nominee that summarizes the contributions made should be sent to adisidoro@gmail.com
Nominations are due no later than June 1, 2018.

The Allston Civic Association Executive Board will review all nominations and the most worthy candidate will be selected.
