

American Sign Language (ASL)

Class Schedule for Spring 2015

Access, Awareness, and Achievement for Deaf, DeafBlind, Hard of Hearing and Late-Deafened People

Why study ASL? Learning ASL breaks down communications barriers among different groups. Our classes provide a fun, relaxed environment in which to interact and make new friends. There is no substitute for learning ASL in person!

Who should study ASL?

Anyone Hard of Hearing, Late-Deafened or Hearing interested in learning

Anyone! ASL is a great way to expand your horizons

Parents of children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

Anyone experiencing hearing loss or who knows someone who is

Employers and colleagues of someone who signs
