Exhibition Dates: Thursday, July 20, 2017 - Tuesday, August 22, 2017

Delve into the life cycle of six historic Allston-Brighton landmarks through a curated exhibition Rejuvenation, presented by the Ed Portal's Crossings Gallery and local non-profit Unbound Visual Arts. Through mixed media works by local artists, this exhibition surveys properties in the neighborhood that have gone through a cycle of birth, deterioration, and abandonment or renewal. The six landmarks include Allston Depot, St. Gabriel's Monastery, Oak Square School, Charles River Speedway Administration Building, Chestnut Hill Reservoir and Pumping Stations, and Harvard Stadium. The works on display will also explore parallel processes of rejuvenation in human life and ask how the past and future affect the present.

Bike Share Workshop

Boston Bikes and the Boston Transportation Department

Saturday, October 14, 2017, 10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Our public bike share system is getting bigger and even better! In Boston, we are adding more than 70 new stations over the next two years.

We need your help finding great places in Allston Brighton for bike share stations! We will focus on Allston Brighton and nearby neighborhoods during the workshop. We will have materials available so that you can discuss all neighborhoods under consideration for the expansion.

You do not need to be a resident of Allston Brighton to attend this workshop.
