Gut Shabbos

"The following kabbalistic message may be dangerous to mental health and should not be read by anyone over the age of 39 unless you're familiar with the triangle offense: One Shabbos, the shames informed the Velzer Rebbe that there were two sponsors for the third meal. One family was sponsoring in memory of the neshama of the mother and another family in memory of the neshama of the father. A shidduch made in heaven, exclaimed the Velzer Rebbe. In kabbala, the Rebbe pointed out, this is designated as a zivug shlishi-des and that's how the third meal came to be called shlishides by litvishe, poylishe, ungarishe, chassidim and misnagdim."-Rabbi Mel Teitelbaum
