"In Velz, when a solar eclipse was imminent, the Rebbe would pop up his sukkah and observe the eclipse through the Schach. The Rebbe explained that this was an event of maximum coverage, the shady area being greater than the sunny area. Once in the Sukah, the Rebbe recited Brayshis Yom Revii (the day the sun & moon were created) and Tana Dubai Reb Yishmael from Kiddush Levanah. The Rebbe also noted that the word chamah (sun) is gematriya 53 and Levanah (moon) 87. The difference, 34, is two times Tov. Yom Revii, the Rebbe emphasized, was also a day on which Tov was doubled."-Rabbi Mel Teitelbaum
