*When blowing Shofar during the month of Elul, the Velzer Rebbe would do so in the afternoon and blow only the sound of Shevarim. The Rebbe observed that we know that during this period Moses was in heaven preparing to replace the first two Luchos he had broken when he unexpectedly appeared and found the nation worshipping a golden calf because they had mistaken his time of arrival. The Torah uses the three letter word Boshesh (beis, shin, shin) which is an advisory, the Rebbe explained, that we should sound the shofar "beshesh" the sixth hour of the day or later. Furthermore, the Rebbe added, these same letters signify (beis)2, (shin)shevarim, (shin) shevarim. For each of the two broken tablets we are to sound shevarim."-Rabbi Mel Teitelbaum
