

Project Garden

*Do you have a dream project that could bring about positive change in the world?
Would you like to share ideas and join inspiring projects?
Would you like to connect with other change makers?*

The Project Garden invites you to join a conversation about moving projects forward. This will be an opportunity to get input for your project or to contribute ideas and join other inspiring projects.

The Project Garden is a local initiative to plant seeds of change and nurture a community of change makers in Beijing.

This first event will be a hosted process using ProAction Cafe, a collaborative methodology for moving projects from ideas into action. It will be hosted by a team of experienced practitioners in the Art of Hosting Conversations That Matter.
