

The E-Can Act and the future of New Zealand environmental law

A public panel discussion hosted by Lincoln University's Faculty of Environment, Society and Design.

Thursday 22nd July, 7.00pm-9.00pm

The Great Hall, Christchurch Arts Centre

Doors open 6.30pm, limited spaces available

The Faculty of Environment, Society and Design at Lincoln University, New Zealand's specialist land-based university, takes pleasure in inviting you to a public panel discussion as part of our commitment to public engagement and to the time-honoured role of universities as critics and conscience of society.

Members of the public will have the opportunity to pose questions to the panel during the evening. The discussion will be chaired by Dr Ann Brower, Senior Lecturer in Public Policy, Lincoln University.

The panellists include:

Maree Baker, Resource Management Partner, Anderson Lloyd Lawyers

The Hon. David Caygill, Environment Canterbury Commissioner

Professor Philip Joseph, School of Law, University of Canterbury

Dr Russel Norman MP, Co-Leader of the Green Party

New Zealand's specialist land-based university

Want to find out more?

www.lincoln.ac.nz
0800 10 60 10

Lincoln University
Te Whare Wānaka o Aoraki
CHRISTCHURCH • NEW ZEALAND