CFO Quarterly Speaker- Rosemary Mosco

Join CFO's quarterly speaker series with the marvelous Rosemary Mosco on June 25th at 7pm to learn how mixing humor, science, and art can contribute to bird conservation and help us understand the avian wonders in our neighborhood.

Rosemary makes books and cartoons that connect people with the natural world. Her Bird and Moon nature comics won the National Cartoonists Society's award for Best Online Short Form Comic, were the subject of an award-winning museum exhibit, and are collected in a book that's a 2019 ALA Great Graphic Novel for Teens. She makes best-selling science books for kids and adults, gives engaging keynotes at birding festivals, and writes for the PBS kids' show Elinor Wonders Why. Her favorite glacial landform is the esker.

Hummingbird ID Workshop & Field Events

We're excited to announce we're hosting a workshop and several field trips this summer focused on hummingbirds. Here's your opportunity to become familiar with the more subtle and challenging aspects of identifying the four hummingbirds (including the hard-to-identify female and immature of these species) we generally see in Colorado. In addition, we will explore the rare hummingbirds that also visit our state.

Hummingbird Identification Workshop

Date/Time: Sunday, July 10th from 7:00 - 8:30

The hummingbird identification workshop will be a free zoom webinar presented by Scott Rashid of Estes Park. His biography is below.

Field Trips

We will have a number of themed field trips to accompany this workshop. Up to 12 registrants per field trip. They will take place in July, August, and possibly into September at a variety of locations around Colorado. Registration will be $10 for CFO members / $20 for non members.

More information, including registration and themes of the field trips will be announced when the details are finalized.

Scott Rashid Biography

Artist, researcher, bird rehabilitator, author, and director of a nonprofit are only a few things that describe Scott Rashid. Scott has been painting, illustrating and writing about birds for over 30 years. In 2011, Scott created the Colorado Avian Research and Rehabilitation Institute, or CARRI, in Estes Park. Members of the nonprofit rehabilitate injured birds found in and around Estes Park and research birds in and around RMNP, Estes Park and the front range of Colorado.

Scott and members of CARRI research many avian species including, Northern Pygmy-Owls, Northern Saw-whet Owls, Great Horned Owls, Boreal Owls, Northern Goshawks and many other species including songbirds and hummingbirds.
