

DISSERTATION ART!

Working in R? Think some of those plots (even the accidental ones) are also works of art? Grab your laptop and JOIN US for (free!) beer, snacks and great company to generate beautiful artwork from your research! If you choose to donate your work after the session, it will be curated and made into a variety of products to be shared for a good cause!

Hosted by the Davis R-Users Group and Data Carpentry
Friday, November 18, 2016
5:30–9:00pm
508 2nd St, Suite 208

Sales of the final collection of products will benefit a Data Carpentry charity fund. BYOL (Bring Your Own Laptop). For more details and announcements, visit:
