

Collaborating for a Healthier Community 2015

An Unconference for Health and Information Professionals

In partnership with DC Public Library and NAACP DC Branch

Saturday, June 20, 2015
10:00 am – 5:00 pm

Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Library
901 G Street NW | Washington, DC

Collaborating for a Healthier Community is a regional unconference for librarians, public health professionals, community health workers, medical professionals, community organizers, and others interested in improving programs and services that promote community health and health information. FREE to attend!

An unconference is informal and participant-driven.
Attendees select and manage discussion topics and sessions.

Don't miss this awesome opportunity to:

- Participate in interactive discussions
- Share and learn new information & resources
- Build collaborative networks and partnerships

To register and share session topics, visit: <http://cfhcunconference.wikispaces.com>

Questions? cfhcunconference@gmail.com

@CFHCUncun
#CFHC2015

DC public library

