WEBSITE ACCESSIBILITY AWARD
General Criteria, Nomination Form and Guide Questions

Deadline for submission: April 30, 2017

This award is given to public and private organizations that have designed and instituted a website that is easily accessible to and in service of persons with various disabilities for whom more opportunities for growth have been presented and whose communication skills were enhanced accordingly.

There are three (3) categories as follows:

a.   PWD-friendly Website Award for National Government Sites – applies to official government sites with national scope which includes all the three branches, their attached agencies as well as government owned and controlled corporations.

b.   PWD-friendly Website Award for Local Government Units – applicable to all local government sites from the provinces, municipalities, cities and barangay levels.

c.   PWD-friendly Website Award for Non-Government Organizations/Corporations – covers sites that are private and those sites that are not using the .gov.ph domain name.

It follows the guidelines set under the attached "Joint NCC-NCDA Circular No.1 on Web accessibility" issued in 2010, and aims to boost the RIGHT TO INFORMATION called for in the "UN-Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities".

To be considered for the Award, the website must meet the following criteria:

as stated in:

Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 1.0
https://www.w3.org/TR/WCAG10/

Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0
