

MEET THE MAKER

DERBY MUSEUMS

A WHOLE HISTORY OF FORWARD THINKING

WHAT

Meet the Maker is brand new programme to the Silk Mill. It is a celebration of Makers, inviting people in to share their making practice with the public!

Meet the Maker is engaging, interactive and inspiring – allowing the public to have a go and learn new skills as well as observe.

WHY

There are always Makers to meet in the Silk Mill – this programme has been introduced as an entry point to making for our audiences as well as to ensure the sheer variety of making in the city is captured and shared.

WHEN

Meet the Maker takes place twice a month – usually the first Thursday of the month and the third Saturday.

We know we attract more families on Saturdays, so this is worth bearing in mind.

IS IT

FOR ME?

Meet the Maker is all about showing the variety of projects that Makers work on.

We want to celebrate the full range of making – from laser cutting, casting and electronics through to knitting, embroidery work and wood work.

WHAT WE NEED

If you would like to be considered to be part of the 'Meet the Maker' programming, please email Chris Keady on chris2@derbymuseums.org.

We will feature you in our What's On guide and online, and in order to do this we would require a brief description of how you would use the space.

We programme 3-6 months in advance.
