

ROUND 3144: KANTIKOY

Definition	Submitted By	Votes from...	Votes	Voted for...		Total
1. (from Gr., var. canticou). A primitive oboe or shawm, once played by shepherds in Thessaly and northern Greece.	Alan Mallach			6	13	0
2. (Poetic) A rest; a pause.	Dan Widdis			8	9	0
3. (S.E.Asian) Floating artificial islands, generally made from bundled reeds.	Shani Naylor	Barrs, Shefler, Embler	3	4*	10	5*
4. a ceremonial dance of some Native American tribes, often involving sacrifices; to participate in a kantikoy.	https://www.thefreedictionary.com/kantikoy	Naylor				1
5. a fanfare of trumpets or horns traditionally used to announce the entrance of a sultan or sheik.	Mike Shefler	Keating	1	3	11	1
6. a selection from Psalms sung during the first, second or third antiphon in Greek Orthodox worship.	Effrem Mallach	Fein, Bourne, Lodge, McGill, Abell, A. Mallach	6	7	9	6
7. a spool used for holding and drying entrails after ritual animal sacrifice in early Hellenist practice	Ryan McGill	E. Mallach	1	6	10	1
8. a type of lace made in Warsaw in imitation of lace from Mechelen and exported to much of the western Russian Empire in the 18th century.	Paul Keating	Widdis	1	5	13	1
9. An alphabetic system of inscribed notches for vowels and lines for consonants used to write ancient Shauraseni originating from the 3rd to 10th centuries in northern medieval India.	Debbie Embler	E. Mallach, Widdis	2	3	10	2
10. In the Orthodox churches, a passage of scripture sung during a service, usually verses taken from a gospel or an epistle.	Tim Bourne	Lodge, Embler, McGill, Naylor	4	6	12	4
11. [Dutch] Original name for Old Saybrook, Connecticut.	Dave Cunningham	Barrs, Fein, Shefler, Abell	4			4
12. [now Obs.] The music leader in a Native American religious ceremony.	Johnny Barrs	Bourne	1	3	11	1
13. [Turkish] a workshop, esp. one for making carpets.	Tim Lodge	Keating, A. Mallach	2	6	10	2
No definition	Deborah Fein		0	6	11	0
No definition	Tony Abell		0	6	11	0