

ROUND 3111 : ONYXIS

| Definition | Submitted By | Votes from... | Votes | Voted for... | | Total |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|-------|--------------|----|-------|
| 1. A blackened protrusion on a tooth [Rare]. | Dave Cunningham | McGill, Widdis | 2 | -- | -- | 2 |
| 2. A condition postulated by the psychologist Jean Piaget, in which a subject's cognitive development is delayed by an unhealthy obsession with the value of objects. | Tim Lodge | No one | 0 | 5 | 7 | 0 |
| 3. A descriptive term applied to parallel banded forms of a variety of minerals. | Tim Bourne | No one | 0 | 6 | 12 | 0 |
| 4. A hang-nail. | Johnny Barrs | Shepherdson, A. Mallach, E. Mallach, Naylor | 4 | 9* | 13 | 6* |
| 5. A perennial monocotyledon angiosperm of family Liliaceae , characterized by very dark blue, nearly black, flowers. | Efrem Mallach | Lodge | 1 | 4 | 9* | 3* |
| 6. A prepared surface on the face of a building, a rock, etc., bearing an inscription or the like. | Shani Naylor | Shefler, Bourne, Abell | 3 | 4 | 9* | 5* |
| 7. A rare congenital neurological disorder resulting in the loss of the ability to distinguish hot from cold, or pain from pleasure. | Mike Shefler | Lodge | 1 | 6 | 9* | 3* |
| 8. A severe underbite resulting in malocclusion of molars and difficulty chewing. | Nancy Shepherdson | McGill | 1 | 4 | 12 | 1 |
| 9. An ingrown nail. | https://www.merriam-webster.com | Shefler, Barrs, A. Mallach, E. Mallach, Naylor, Abell | 6 | – | – | D6 |
| 10. It is quite impossible to say whether onyxis denotes a mineral or an animal production or a vegetable exudation; a gum resin. | Debbie Embler | Keating, Widdis | 2 | 11 | 12 | 2 |
| 11. Poet. iridescent black. | Paul Keating | Embler | 1 | 10 | 12 | 1 |
| 12. The process of stratifying into layers over large spans of time, as with mineral deposits. | Ryan McGill | Embler, Bourne, Keating, Shepherdson | 4 | 1 | 8 | 4 |
| 13. An ancient Greek city in Lydia in Asia Minor, known for its temple of Aphrodite. | Alan Mallach | Barrs | 1 | 4 | 9* | 3* |
| No definition | Tony Abell | No one | 0 | 6 | 9* | 2* |
| No definition | Dan Widdis | No one | 0 | 1 | 10 | 0 |