US markets and European markets plummet

- US stocks tumbled, sending benchmark indexes down the most since February, as credit-rating downgrades of Greece and Portugal spurred concern Europe's debt crisis will derail the global economic recovery. The Dow Jones, S&P 500 and NASDAQ dropped 1.90%, 2.34% and 2.09%, respectively. Alcoa Inc. and Caterpillar Inc. led declines in all but two of the 30 shares in the Dow Jones Industrial Average. Ford Motor Co. fell 6.2% from a five-year high as an analyst said firstquarter results were "unsustainable." Goldman Sachs Group Inc. had the only gain among 79 financial companies in the Standard & Poor's 500 Index as executives testified to a Senate subcommittee about mortgage securities.
- The FTSE 100 tumbled the most in at least five months after Standard & Poor's downgraded Greece and Portugal, spurring concern that indebted European nations are moving closer to default. The FTSE 100 Index cashed 150.33 points, or 2.61%, and ended at 5,603.52. Barclays Plc and Bank of Ireland Plc dropped more than 3%. Kazakhmys Plc and Rio Tinto Group sank more than 5% as copper tumbled in London. Tullow Oil Plc fell 4.6% as crude retreated below USD 83 a barrel.

Sensex snaps winning streak

Reacting to mixed cues from the global markets, the Sensex opened on a cautious note at 17,744.93 with a negligible negative gap of 0.35 points. However, the gauge recouped to touch the intraday high of 17,769.25 as ONGC rose more than 2% after the Company said after market hours on Monday that it has added 83 million tonnes of oil reserves in the year ended March 2010. In the early afternoon session, the markets came off the day's high owing to persistent selling pressure in the Realty, Banking and Auto stocks. Subsequently, in the late afternoon session the markets traded range-bound with negative bias due to the dismal start in the European markets. Thereafter, in the last hour of trade the markets slipped further into the red to touch the intraday low of 17,678.56 as investors were cautious ahead of the expiry of the near-month April 2010 contracts. The Sensex finally ended the session at 17,678.56, down 54.66 points or 0.31%.

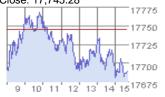

The Nifty ended the day at 5,308.35, slipping 14.10 points or 0.26%.

Commodities Market

Crude oil fell to the lowest level in more than a week as global equities plunged and the dollar advanced after Standard & Poor's Ratings Services cut its sovereign credit ratings on Greece to junk. Copper fell the most in 10 months as cuts in credit ratings for Greece and Portugal threatened to undermine economic recoveries. Gold futures rose to the highest price in two weeks on demand for an alternative to holding currencies.
