

THE INDICATOR
MARKET SUMMARY

The bulls retained the charge for the 8th consecutive day as the markets continued the northward journey. The markets opened on a firm note today and the benchmark indices soon advanced to mark intra-day high levels. However, profit booking at higher levels shed most of the early gains and the benchmark indices almost touched the dotted line in the afternoon. The bulls were quick to respond to the weakness as the buying in the Banking stocks in the final trading hour aided the indices to recover the lost gains. The Sensex closed at 17291, 141 points higher, while the Nifty added 21 points to finish at 5021.

Metal and Bankex indices led the rally gaining 3.3% and 2.6% respectively. Among the Sensex stocks, REL, Tata Steel, and Hindalco were leaders, whereas Bharti, and ONGC retreated the most. The market breadth was equally poised between the advancers and the decliners.
