After a rally for seven consecutive trading sessions, market has witnessed some profit booking at higher levels which led the indices to close in red. On the daily charts, we are observing a pattern that resembles a “Shooting star” which indicates a possibility of a consolidation or a correction of previous rise. The high 19636 / 5902 of the “Shooting star” would now be the resistance for the indices. Any move beyond these levels would negate the implication of the said pattern and could test 19800 / 5950 levels. On the downside, if the indices trade convincingly below 19383 / 5815 level then it may test 19240 – 19100 / 5780 -5737 levels.
