Sell: 3Q08 Results – Thrust on Fee Incomes

- 3Q08 profits up 74% yoy; in-line with expectations IDFC's net profits grew rapidly in a strong quarter, driven by NII expansion (+52%) and fees. Fee growth was led by brokerage and capital gains; while NII was supported by its expanding loan book (+45%). Qualitatively it was a strong quarter with sustained growth and momentum in lending and fees.
- Margins hold but funding costs are rising IDFC's overall NIMs and spreads have remained fairly stable (at about 320bps and 200bps respectively). While management suggested improving yields, increase in funding costs kept margins relatively stable. We see declining interest rates as beneficial for IDFC's margins (our near-term view) while tighter liquidity will be the key risk.
- Fee income growth led by brokerage; fund raising near-term kicker Fee incomes have increased rapidly (+250% yoy) led by brokerage (increased stake to 79.8%) and capital market gains; and well supported by growth in advisory and fees. Planned fund raisings (US$1.5bn+ over the year) near term, and performance fees longer term, should further bolster fee income growth.
- Maintain Sell (3M) on relatively high valuations While the business momentum continues to remain strong and in-line with expectations; we believe wholesale funded institutions such as IDFC are relatively more exposed to interest rate tightness/cyclicality (as is the case with many global markets currently) and should be valued at a discount to private banking peers.

Infrastructure Development Finance

Company description

IDFC was established in 1997 as a specialized Infrastructure financier / advisor and to encourage private sector investments in the infrastructure sector. It has been actively associated with the government in policy formulation, and has probably the foremost set of skills in this space. It enjoys a central positioning as amongst the forerunners on the policy advisory space in infrastructure and is seen as the preferred investor, lender and advisor. Though IDFC has diversified its product offerings to include non-fund based products, asset management and private equity along with debt finance and syndication opportunities; the lending business remains its key operational focus.

Investment strategy

We rate IDFC shares Sell/Medium Risk (3M) with an Rs195 target price. IDFC appears particularly well positioned to benefit from India's large infrastructure opportunity. We believe IDFC has a quality management team, is one of the few pure plays on infrastructure financial services and offers long-term growth potential.

However, the stock has had a sharp run and has outperformed the market significantly. We believe, the current price is factoring in further upside surprises in addition to the already strong performance in YTD FY08. While we believe the business is still in a sweet spot, it will be challenging to exceed the current high expectations built in the stock.

IDFC faces challenges from – a) Competition - from larger scale and lower funding cost banks; b) Wholesale funding – borrowing costs are exposed to sharp hikes in interest rates and tightness in market liquidity; c) Business model – relatively higher portfolio concentrations as against banks; d) Finance company platform – limits leverage relative to banks; and e) Modest profitability – we expect core RoEs to remain relatively modest at sub 15% levels in the medium term.

Valuation

We value IDFC at Rs195 based on our sum-of-parts methodology. For IDFC's core lending business (Rs149 per share), we prefer a P/BV multiple of 3.0x FY09E BV benchmarked towards the lower band private banks' target P/BV multiples, with a sub15% core ROE. This reflects IDFC's premium positioning in the infrastructure segment, strong management, long track record of low asset risks and relatively high growth profile. However, its target multiple is constrained by its lack of retail asset, liability and distribution franchises relative to premier private bank franchises.

For the asset management business we prefer to use a DCF approach and value this business at Rs23 per share. We now value IDFC's stake in SSKI at Rs14 per share based on 22x FY09E profits. Finally, we also add Rs9 for IDFC's unrealized investment gains including the NSE.

Risks

We rate IDFC shares Medium Risk based on our quantitative risk system that tracks 260-day historical share price volatility. Key risks to our recommendation include: a) Continued low interest rates. b) Steepening yield curve. c) Continued buoyancy in capital markets. d) Regulatory concessions and a favorable tax regime.

Guide to Fundamental Research Investment Ratings:

Citi Investment Research's stock recommendations include a risk rating and an investment rating.

Risk ratings, which take into account both price volatility and fundamental criteria, are: Low (L), Medium (M), High (H), and Speculative (S).

Investment ratings are a function of Citi Investment Research's expectation of total return (forecast price appreciation and dividend yield within the next 12 months) and risk rating.

For securities in emerging markets (Asia Pacific, Emerging Europe/Middle East/Africa, and Latin America), investment ratings are: Buy (1) (expected total return of 15% or more for Low-Risk stocks, 20% or more for Medium-Risk stocks, 30% or more for High-Risk stocks, and 40% or more for Speculative stocks); Hold (2) (5%-15% for Low-Risk stocks, 10%-20% for Medium-Risk stocks, 15%-30% for High-Risk stocks, and 20%-40% for Speculative stocks); and Sell (3) (5% or less for Low-Risk stocks, 10% or less for Medium-Risk stocks, and 20% or less for Speculative stocks).

Investment ratings are determined by the ranges described above at the time of initiation of coverage, a change in investment and/or risk rating, or a change in target price (subject to limited management discretion). At other times, the expected total returns may fall outside of these ranges because of market price movements and/or other short-term volatility or trading patterns. Such interim deviations from specified ranges will be permitted but will become subject to review by Research Management. Your decision to buy or sell a security should be based upon your personal investment objectives and should be made only after evaluating the stock's expected performance and risk.

Guide to Corporate Bond Research Credit Opinions and Investment Ratings:

Citi Investment Research's corporate bond research issuer publications include a fundamental credit opinion of Improving, Stable or Deteriorating and a complementary risk rating of Low (L), Medium (M), High (H) or Speculative (S) regarding the credit risk of the company featured in the report. The fundamental credit opinion reflects the CIR analyst's opinion of the direction of credit fundamentals of the issuer without respect to securities market vagaries. The fundamental credit opinion is not geared to, but should be viewed in the context of debt ratings issued by major public debt ratings companies such as Moody's Investors Service, Standard and Poor's, and Fitch Ratings. CBR risk ratings are approximately equivalent to the following matrix: Low Risk Triple A to Low Double A; Low to Medium Risk High Single A through High Triple B; Medium to High Risk Mid Triple B through High Double B; High to Speculative Risk Mid Double B and Below. The risk rating element illustrates the analyst's opinion of the relative likelihood of loss of principal when a fixed income security issued by a company is held to maturity, based upon both fundamental and market risk factors. Certain reports published by Citi Investment Research will also include investment ratings on specific issues of companies under coverage which have been assigned fundamental credit opinions and risk rating. Investment ratings are a function of Citi Investment Research's expectations for total return, relative return (to publicly available Citigroup bond indices performance), and risk rating. These investment ratings are: Buy/Overweight the bond is expected to outperform the relevant Citigroup bond market sector index; or Sell/Underweight the bond is expected to underperform the relevant Sector index; or Sell/Underweight the bond is expected to underperform the relevant sector of the Citigroup indexes.
