VIEW POINT: READY TO MOVE ON

Stocks are likely to move higher Monday morning taking cues from a firm weekend close for the US bourses and chirping of the Asian indices this morning. The Sensex and the Nifty, which are at an all time high mark are expected to open with an upward flourish

The Nifty has shed open interest and accordingly the discount has given way to premium in the Nifty futures. Stocks of the Reliance family, cutting across the brotherly boundary, look good and so do the financials like IDFC and PFC. The best of the days pick could be RNRL, where a breakout is expected going by the positions built on Friday.

THE INDICATOR*ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

U.S. stocks rallied Friday, and posted solid weekly gains, with technology stocks leading the charge after Microsoft Corp.'s earnings blew past analysts' estimates while raised forecasts from Countrywide Financial Corp. helped soothe concerns about bad home loans.

An earnings beat by Microsoft and the promise of a fourth-quarter profit from Countrywide lifted traders' spirits Friday, even as crude continued its record-breaking journey.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average closed at its best level of the session, rising 134.78 points, or 0.99%, at 13,806.70, and the S&P 500 improved by 20.88 points, or 1.38%, to 1535.28. The Nasdaq Composite was sharply higher, up 53.33 points, or 1.94%, at 2804.19.

The major averages also notched their sixth winning week in seven tries. The Dow added 2.1%, the S&P 500 gained 2.3%, and the Nasdaq finished the week 2.9% higher. A Leading tech to the upside was Microsoft, who jumped 9.5% to $35.03. Late Thursday, the software giant easily beat estimates with its fiscal first-quarter earnings and revenue. Microsoft also guided higher for its fiscal second quarter and the full year.

Meanwhile, Countrywide lost more than $1 billion in the latest quarter, but the stock soared 32.4% to end at $17.30 after the lender kept its quarterly dividend and said it should return to profitability in the fourth quarter and next year.

Also among financials, Merrill Lynch rallied as rumors swirled that CEO Stan O'Neal will be forced out by early next week. The stock, which tumbled just days ago after the brokerage reported a mammoth third-quarter writedown, climbed $5.19, or 8.5%, to $66.09.

Away from equities, the University of Michigan's consumer sentiment index for October was the lone economic report of the day. The index fell to a reading of 80.9, below the preliminary 82.0 reading, as well as economists' expectation of 82.3.

Crude for December delivery was better by $1.40 to settle at a record $91.86 a barrel Friday in New York. Earlier, it touched an all-time intraday high at $92.22.

During the previous session, oil closed above $90 for the first time ever after the White House introduced new sanctions against Iran and OPEC's secretary general said his group isn't worried yet about rising prices.

Crude traders have continued to focus on tensions in the Middle East that could lead to oil-supply disruptions. A fire at a Houston refinery operated by Lyondell Chemical Co. helped push prices higher in the last hour of the session.
