VIEW POINT: SOME RESPITE

The continuous slide in the US markets, with the Dow now breaking the psychological barrier of 13k, will not help the cause of our markets this Tuesday morning. So our markets will gently tip toe higher in the opening trade. If there is a large gap up opening, it could be used to lighten commitments.

The 570 point loss in the Sensex was reduced to just 170 points, making 18333 a tradable bottom. The discount in the Nifty futures was turned to a premium by the closing time, which indicates short covering. Bongaion, IFCI, Essar Oil and JP Hydro have exceeded the 95% market wide limit and Adlabs has seen its market wide limit falling to less than 80%, which makes it eligible for trading in the derivative segment. The mid-cap PSU bandwagon seems good to ride.

THE INDICATORACROSS THE ATLANTIC

U.S. stocks on Monday extended the prior week's steep losses, with the Dow Jones Industrial Average closing below the 13,000-mark for the first time in nearly three months, as credit-related worries persisted.

At the close, the Dow had a loss of 55.44 points, or 0.43%, to 12,987.30 -- the first time the index has closed below the 13,000 level since mid-August. The S&P 500 fell 14.52 points, or 1%, to 1439.18.

In what has been a trend of late, the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite saw the steepest declines. This time, the index was lower by 43.81 points, or 1.67%, at 2584.13.

Pressuring the Nasdaq were losses in Nvidia and Research In Motion of 10% and 9.4%, respectively.

Also on the losing side, the Philadelphia Gold and Silver Sector Index dropped 7.7%, and the Philadelphia Oil Service Sector Index sank 5.9%. Those moves came as crude slid $1.70 to $94.62 a barrel, gold tumbled $27 to $807.70 an ounce and silver slid 78 cents to $14.76 an ounce.

Financial stocks, which were battered in the wake of more write downs due to the recent credit market woes, got some positive news to start the week. The New York Times reported that a structure for a $75 billion backstop fund from Citigroup, Bank of America and JPMorgan has been struck.

The same news outlet has also reported that potential bids for restaurant chain Wendy's could be in jeopardy due to the credit crunch. Still, Wendy's closed higher by 36 cents, or 1.2%, at $31.60.

Several brokers were out with ratings changes. Lehman Brothers downgraded both Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac to equal-weight from overweight. Fannie Mae lost 4% to $47.06, and Freddie Mac slumped 4.1% to close at $40.

Shares of E*Trade spiraled 58.7% lower after Citigroup downgraded the financial company's stock to sell from hold. The firm cited E*Trade's announcement after the previous session of larger-than-expected write downs.

Merrill Lynch downgraded many of the enterprise software names. Among those, the firm cut its rating for Microsoft to neutral from buy. Oracle, Red Hat and Sybase were also cut.

Among upgrades, Citigroup raised its rating for chipmaker Altera to buy from hold. However, the stock was off 4 cents, or 0.2%, to $18.88.

The U.S. bond market was closed in observance of the Veterans Day holiday. Additionally, there were no economic releases scheduled.

Crude oil fell nearly $2 a barrel on Monday and closed at the lowest level in a week on speculation members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries may consider increasing their output at an upcoming meeting. Crude-oil futures on the New York Mercantile Exchange finished the session down $1.7, or 1.8%, to $94.62 a barrel, the lowest close since Nov. 6. The contract dropped to as low as $93.54 a barrel earlier in electronic trading.
