For 3QFY2011, Bajaj Electricals (BEL) posted top-line growth of $16.4 \%$ at $₹ 690 \mathrm{cr}$ (₹592cr), which was above our estimate of ₹ 666 cr . OPM at $10.3 \%$ ( $10.3 \%$ ) came below our estimate of $11.8 \%$. Net profit increased by $18.7 \%$ yoy to $₹ 40.5 \mathrm{cr}$ ( $₹ 34.1 \mathrm{cr}$ ) and came in below our estimate, owing to suppressed OPM and higher interest costs. During the quarter, interest cost rose to ₹9.3cr. For FY2011 and FY2012, on account higher sales, we have revised upwards our top-line estimates from ₹ $2,686 \mathrm{cr}$ and $₹ 3,241 \mathrm{cr}$ to ₹ $2,733 \mathrm{cr}$ to ₹ $3,285 \mathrm{cr}$ and margin estimates lower from $10.2 \%$ and $10.6 \%$ to $10.0 \%$ and $10.4 \%$, respectively. We also roll over to FY2013 numbers. We recommend an Accumulate on the stock.

Top-line remains robust on impressive consumer durables performance: Sales for the quarter were again driven by a strong $33.9 \%$ yoy growth in the Consumer Durables business. Lighting division also performed well with $17.1 \%$ yoy growth, while the E&P business sales came in flat. OPM was below expectations at $10.3 \%$, as the E&P division recorded a 249bp yoy decline in margins to $9.4 \%$ (11.9\%), although it was a remarkable improvement from $3.1 \%$ that it posted in 2QFY2011. Going ahead, margins are expected to hover at these levels.

Outlook and Valuation: We remain positive on the company primarily owing to the strong growth in the consumer durables business. We expect sales to post a CAGR of $20.9 \%$ over FY2010-13 to ₹ $3,935 \mathrm{cr}$. However, we have revised downwards our OPM estimates for FY2011 and FY2012 to $10.0 \%$ and $10.4 \%$ respectively, while we estimate OPM of $10.4 \%$ for FY2013. We expect PAT to register CAGR of $27.0 \%$ to $₹ 245 \mathrm{cr}$ over FY2010-13. At current levels, the stock is trading at 10.8x FY2012E and 8.9x FY2013E EPS. We recommend an Accumulate on the stock, with a Target Price of ₹ 248.

Sales growth at 16.4\%

BEL has been consistently performing well on the sales front over the past few quarters. In comparison however, growth in 3QFY2011 was subdued mainly because of flat sales in the E&P division. Going ahead however, we expect sales of this segment to pick up.

OPM improves from lows of 2QFY2011

OPM during 3QFY2011 improved sequentially to $10.3 \%$ as compared to $7.6 \%$ in 2QFY2011. However, OPM was flat on yoy basis. The main driver for OPM improvement was the margins of the E&P division, which increased from $3.1 \%$ in the last quarter to $9.4 \%$ in 3QFY2011.

PAT growth remains at a healthy $18.7 \%$

PAT grew by $18.7 \%$ yoy to ₹ 40.5 cr . Sequentially, PAT grew by a remarkable $73.1 \%$ mainly on account of the 270bp improvement in OPM.

Management con-call - Key takeaways

- The E\&P business order book currently stands at ₹ $1,050 \mathrm{cr}$. Of this, the lighting projects business is ₹ 121 cr , rural electrification ₹ 320 cr , high mast and street light ₹ 120 cr and the transmission line towers $\sim ₹ 515 \mathrm{cr}$.
- The company is focusing on product innovations and network rollout to maintain high growth trajectory in the consumer durables business.
- Recently, BEL received 12 orders worth $₹ 75 \mathrm{cr}$ in packages and is well placed in tenders worth $₹ 350 \mathrm{cr}$. The company is expecting substantial order inflow in February or March 2011.
- Tax rate for the quarter was relatively low as some earlier income tax related matters were settled in the company's favour. Going ahead, the company is expected to remain in the highest income tax bracket.
- Over the last nine months, the company hiked prices by $\sim 5.0 \%$ across its product portfolio.
- The response to Bajaj pressure cookers has been good in the eastern part of the country and the company plans to launch the product across the rest of the country as well.

Investment Arguments

Leveraging on strong brands and substantial market share: BEL has strong brand positioning and well-spread distribution network. As per the company's internal estimates, it is the fastest growing player in the Domestic Appliances market, which is growing at $20 \%$ pa. In the Small Appliances market, BEL enjoys a market share of over 15-30\% across products.

Focus on high-margin E&P Division: Post a shift in Revenue mix, BEL has been focusing on the high-Margin E&P Division. The E&P Division enjoys high Margins of 12-13\% compared to overall margins of 8\%. In FY2005, E&P contributed 14.8\% (₹99.5cr) of BEL's Gross Sales, which grew to 33.6\% (₹756cr) in FY2010. We expect EBDITA Margins to sustain at current levels with a positive bias.

Future growth drivers - Rural markets, acquisitions, newer verticals: BEL plans to capitalize on the growth in the rural markets. BEL has also identified 7-8 potential acquisition candidates across businesses. Management expects about $15 \%$ of Sales in future to come from acquired businesses. The company also plans to foray into newer verticals like water management, which is an underpenetrated and rapidly growing market.

Outlook and Valuation

We maintain our positive stance on the company given the strong growth in the consumer durables segment and the improving prospects of the E&P division. We are rolling over to FY2013 numbers. We expect sales to post a CAGR of 20.9\% over FY2010-13 to ₹3,935cr. However, we have revised downwards our OPM estimates for FY2O11 and FY2O12 to $10.0 \%$ and $10.4 \%$ respectively, while we estimate OPM of $10.4 \%$ for FY2013. We expect PAT to register CAGR of $27.0 \%$ to ₹245cr over FY2010-13. At current levels, the stock is trading at 10.8x FY2012E and 8.9x FY2013E EPS. We recommend an Accumulate on the stock, with a Target Price of ₹248.
