VIEW POINT: ECONOMIC JITTERS ROCK US

The US GDP growth in Q2 came in at 1.9%, which was higher than the 0.9% growth of Q1 but lower than the expected 2.3% growth. More importantly, the Q4 2007 growth was revised lower to a minus 0.2% from the earlier 0.6%. This casted a gloomy spell over the US markets, which in turn is affecting the rest of Asia. The tell all 'Unemployment data' will come in today before the US markets open, where another 70,000 jobs are feared to have been lost.

The Roll over was less than last month and the three month averages, which indicates that punters are not sticking their neck out from here on. The lower carry over baggage of Rs.51,306 Cr augurs well. There has been active put and call writing at 4300 strike price, which indicates a hung house. Stocks will meanwhile, move lower in the opening session. Unless violated, the range for the Nifty in this settlement is likely to be 4150-4550.

THE INDICATORACROSS THE ATLANTIC

U.S. stocks closed sharply lower on Thursday, leaving the market with a mixed performance for July, as economic concerns resurfaced following weaker-than-expected growth numbers and a big jump in jobless claims.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average finished down 205.67 points, or 1.8%, at 11,378.02, and the S&P 500 dropped 16.88 points, or 1.3%, to 1267.38. After spending much of the day in positive territory, the Nasdaq sold off in the final hour of trading, losing 4.17 points, or 0.2%, to 2325.55.

For the month, the Dow lost 0.4%, the S&P 500 dropped 1.4% and the Nasdaq tacked on 0.9%.

Traders had been in a holding pattern ahead of Thursday morning's economic data, but when the figures were released, the mood took a turn for the worse.

The big number came from the Commerce Department, which said second-quarter gross domestic product rose at a 1.9% annual rate. While that exceeded the first-quarter pace, it still fell short of the 2.3% consensus estimate. The government also made benchmark revisions that showed negative economic growth in the fourth quarter of 2007.

Separately, the Labor Department said that initial claims for unemployment benefits jumped up 44,000 to 448,000 in the week ended July 26. There were expectations of a minor drop.

Offering a brighter picture of the economy, the July Chicago Purchasing Managers Index came in at 50.8, up from 49.6 in June and ahead of the consensus estimate of 49.0.

On Friday, the monthly employment report, always a key economic indicator, will be released.

Dow stock and oil company Exxon Mobil announced a 14% increase in profits on the record oil prices of the past quarter. Exxon Mobil stumbled 4.7% to $80.43.

Traders likewise heard from consumer goods providers such as tobacco concern Altria, food conglomerate Unilever and cereal maker Kellogg. Altria and Unilever both said profits declined from a year ago, while Kellogg announced rising income thanks to price increases that counteracted rising food-input costs. Altria skidded 6.2% to $20.35. Unilever plummeted 9% to $27.39, and Kellogg was off 2% at $53.06.

Meanwhile, communications-technology name Motorola announced an unexpected profit. Technology-sector compatriot Symantec also beat estimates. Motorola caught a 13% updraft to $8.64, and Symantec rallied 7% to $21.07.

In commodities, the price of crude oil was fell $2.69 to settle $124.08. Gold for December shipment jumped $10.40 to end at $922.70.
