S&P Nifty (5617.10 points) (-46.15 pts)

On the opening bell the Nifty opened gap down testing the intraday support at 5490 points. Another round of bottom testing failed to breach the weekly S1 at 5467 points. The Bulls regrouped quickly and steadily launched a strong comeback. RIL, SBI and Larsen led from the front while the other Midcap bigwigs joined the bandwagon. FMCG leaders viz. TC and HUL were among the top 5 Nifty gainers which was a heartening sign. CGS and banking sector too busted in the end. Short covering in the end saw the Nifty recovering around 180 points from the day's low.

After more than 500 points fall from the high of 6012 points the Bears must have covered some of the positions. As expected, some buying around 5500 points must have resulted in a swift recovery. A hammer like pattern is formed; yesterday's low is crucial support for the next couple of days. Now the pullback has to decisively cross 5757 points for up move to continue while weekly R1 is pegged at 5851 points.

Intraday, 5585 points is the pivot while immediate support in the Nifty is pegged in the 5540-5558 points' area. Resistance in rallies is at 5692 and at 5940 points. Action is awaited in Realty/Infra scrips. Be cautious near the resistance levels or hold with strict trailing stop loss on longs.
