VIEW POINT: NORTHWARDS BOUND

The markets did well Monday to rally from the lower levels. Both the levels, 4445 in the Nifty and 15350 in the Sensex held on in the first minute of trade and there after there was no worry. The sentiment in the domestic markets is that of ignoring the international concerns. So no matter how serious the ramifications of these events, traders will have to be governed by the short-term mood of the markets.

The discount in the Nifty Futures has been reduced to 9 points from 32 points. The FIIs have pressed the sales again and IFCI has come out of the freeze along with Bongaigaon. These stocks should do well. Cairn Energy has seen huge building of positions, which augurs well for the stock.

THE INDICATORAcross the Atlantic

U.S. stocks ended Monday little changed after a volatile day marked by wariness ahead of next week's policy-setting meeting of the Federal Reserve.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average swung in a 160-point range before ending up 14.47 points, or 0.11%, at 13,127.85. The S&P 500 slipped 1.85 points, or 0.13%, to 1451.70, and the Nasdaq Composite was off 6.59 points, or 0.26%, at 2559.11.

With little economic data on the docket, traders were focusing on remarks from several Fed bankers. San Francisco Fed President Janet Yellen told the National Association for Business Economics that the recent financial market turmoil will prolong the housing sector adjustment.

Over the weekend, Philadelphia Fed President Charles Plosser somewhat lowered expectations for a rate cut at the next Federal Open Market Committee meeting on Sept. 18 as he delivered a speech in Hawaii.

On Tuesday, Fed Chairman Ben Bernanke will speak in Germany about recent developments in the global financial system.

The Philadelphia Housing Sector Index sank 2.2%, as D.R. Horton, Lennar, Hovnanian, and Toll Brothers all slid by 2.1% or more.

Several finance names were also lower. Embattled lender Countrywide fell 5.5% after saying it would slash up to 20% of its workforce, or 12,000 jobs. The eliminations will occur "in areas most impacted by lower mortgage market origination volumes," the company said. Countrywide lost $1 to $17.21.

Tech stocks got a lift from Advanced Micro Devices, whose shares tacked on 2.6% after the company unveiled its new Barcelona microchip, which it expects to help seize market share from rival Intel. AMD ended the day with a gain of 33 cents at $12.94.

Separately, Intel raised its third-quarter revenue forecast, saying it should have a top line of $9.4 billion to $9.8 billion, up from its prior outlook of $9.0 billion to $9.6 billion. Shares finished down 12 cents, or 0.5%, at $25.35.

Apple was another tech leader; rising 3.8% after the company announced it has sold 1 million iPhones. Last week, shares sold off after Apple reduced the retail price on the 8-gigabyte model by $200. Apple finished up $4.94 at $136.71.

Elsewhere, the October front-month crude contract added 79 cents to finish at $77.49 a barrel. Gold futures added $2.50 to close at $712.20 an ounce, while silver was off 6 cents at $12.70 an ounce.
