MARKET SUMMARY

After lot of decoupling in past sessions, Sensex today followed the global cues. The Sensex remained range-bound for the major part of the day oscillating around the dotted line; managing to stay above the previous close. Though the markets witnessed buying before the noon, the benchmark indices lost most of the gains in the afternoon. The Nifty ended at 4748 with 15 points gain, while the Sensex was up 25 points at 16261.

Realty and Capital goods gained the most. On the other hand, IT and Technology were the biggest losers. Among the Sensex stocks, REL and M&M were the top performers adding 4.4% and 3.9% respectively, while Infosys and Wipro topped the losers' list. The market breadth was negative with three advancing stocks for every four declining ones.
