Value Retailing drives overall revenue growth

Pantaloon's 2QFY06 revenues grew 98.1\% YoY to Rs4.7b, driven largely by Value Retailing segment (Big Bazaar and Food Bazaar). Value Retailing grew $136 \%$ YoY for the quarter, while Lifestyle revenues grew $35.2 \%$. Over 1HFY06, Value Retailing grew 134\% YoY and Lifestyle Retailing reported $25 \%$ YoY growth. Same store sales for the quarter grew $24.4 \%$ YoY, with Value and Lifestyle retailing reporting $27.1 \%$ and $20.1 \%$ growth in their respective same store sales.

We expect lifestyle revenue growth to pick up as the company is increasingly focusing on this segment. The company opened more Pantaloon outlets (6) than Big Bazaar (4) during the quarter, clearly indicating their renewed focus on the lifestyle segment. New store openings are expected to continue to keep revenue growth buoyant.

Higher contribution of Value Retailing depressing margins

EBITDA margins for the quarter were down 110bp YoY, primarily due to higher contribution of low-margin valueretailing business to overall revenues. The contribution of value retailing to overall revenues increased to $70.5 \%$ in 2QFY06 $\mathrm{v} / \mathrm{s} 59 \%$ in the corresponding quarter of the previous year. For 1HFY06, value retailing contributed $68.4 \%$ to overall revenues. We believe that the mix of value and lifestyle retailing is likely to continue to remain skewed in favor of lifestyle retailing in the short term. However, management is focusing on improving the Lifestyle Retailing share to overall revenues by trying to add more Pantaloon outlets.

New tie-ups and initiatives announced

The company has announced a joint venture with Gini and Jony Apparel Pvt. Ltd. to set up a retail chain for kidswear under the Gini and Jony brand. The company expects to roll out these stores within six months. The company has also acquired a $33 \%$ stake in Capital Foods Ltd. and Capital Foods Exports Pvt. Ltd. for a consideration of Rs100m, which manufactures and markets RTE (Ready to eat) food items under brand names such as Ching's secret, Smith & Jones etc. Further, it has announced that it intends to set up an NBFC to undertake all financial service activities for the company. The NBFC is likely to handle the asset management services of the company.

Valuation and view

Pantaloon continues to be our top pick in the organized retail segment. The company has delivered revenue CAGR of $56 \%$ over FY02-FY05. We expect the company to deliver revenue CAGR of $64 \%$ over FY05-FY08E, driven by aggressive expansion plans. The company plans to more than double its retail space to 8 m sq. ft. by the end of FY08. The stock currently trades at $62.4 x$ FY06E earnings, $35.7 x$ FY07E earnings and $22.8 x$ FY08E earnings. We maintain Buy.

Key investment risks

- Pantaloon has an aggressive expansion plan wherein timely and profitable execution is a critical issue - more so in case of Pantaloon, where backend IT systems are being developed and are being scaled up.
