Retail Business on recovery path

Spencer's Retail (Spencer's), the retail arm of CESC, has clocked a turnover of close to Rs900cr in FY2010. The company's sales per sq ft, which stood at Rs660 per sqft in March 2009, increased to Rs811/sq ft in March 2010. Further, the costoptimisation measures taken by the company resulted in savings of Rs100cr in FY2010. The company currently has a total of 218 outlets spread across 42 cities, with a total area of $927,000 \mathrm{sq} \mathrm{ft}$. The company is planning for selective opening of Hyper and Super stores in FY2011E, and a special focus on the southern states for growth. We expect Spencer's to break-even over the next 12-15 months.

Real Estate

The company's 100\% Real Estate subsidiary, CESC Properties, is required to share one-third of its gains from its Real Estate business with its utility consumers (as mandated by the Regulator). Thus, the company's mall project is structured such that CESC Properties earns income from the project and pays CESC a rental for its land. Thus, out of the Rental received by CESC, one-third would be passed by it to its utility customers.

Outlook and Valuation

At Rs406, the stock is trading at $7.4 x$ FY2012E EPS and at $1.0 x$ FY2012E P/BV. We have assigned a 1.1x FY2012E blended P/BV multiple to the company's existing power business, considering its lower ROE and higher cash component. The total value of the power business works out to Rs $425 /$ share. We have valued Spencer's Retail using the Market cap/Sales method, after considering the Market cap/Sales of peers like Pantaloon Retail, Shopper's Stop and Trent. On a one-year forward Market cap/Sales basis, the peers are trading broadly in the range of 0.3-0.6x. Due to the low Margin business model and cash losses, we have assigned Spencer's a Market cap/Sales ratio of $0.2 x$ its FY2012E Sales, which is at a significant discount to the average of its peers. The total value of the Retail business works out to Rs23/share for CESC. We have valued the company's mall at Central Kolkata and the land at Mulajore ( 35 acres) on an NAV basis, and have arrived at a price of Rs12/share for CESC's Real Estate business. Hence, we have arrived at an SOTP Target Price of Rs460. We maintain a Buy on the stock.
