2Q FY 10 Result - IPL theme yet to play out...

Deccan Chronicle's (DCHL) results were better than our expectations.

- Advertising revenue grew by $11 \%$ YoY to Rs 2.35 bn due to favourable pricing and volume improvement. Subscription revenue also increased by $11 \%$ YoY to Rs 150 mn mainly due to improved circulation. Total revenue at $\mathrm{Rs} 2,509 \mathrm{mn}$ ( $B \& \mathrm{~K}: \mathrm{Rs} 2,128 \mathrm{mn}$ ) grew $15.8 \%$ Q oQ and $10.8 \%$ YoY.
- Led by steep fall in raw material cost (down 28.7\% YoY ) and better cost management, total operating expenses were down by $24.8 \% \mathrm{YoY}$ and remained flat Q oQ. C onsequently, the EBIT DA margin improved by $2,110 \mathrm{bps}$ YoY to $55.3 \%$.
- DCHL reported a PAT of Rs 1 bn (B&K : R s 0.6 bn) due to healthy EBIT DA and due to lower provisioning of tax (at 20\% PBT level).

Outlook

Deccan Chronicle's ability to take an ad hike (of 20\% effective 010 ctober 2009), in difficult times as now, shows the dominant positioning of his newspaper in the Andhra Pradesh market. The company justifies the ad rate hike to the increased circulation because of the launch of its Bangalore edition. DCHL will be the biggest beneficiary of benign newsprint prices as it uses only imported newsprint and was the worst hit because of the price rise. We upward revise our ad growth for FY 10E to 10.1\% (from 4.8\%) and 9.1\% for FY 11E (unchanged) and consequently our EPS for FY 10E getsupward revised by $16 \%$ and for FY 11 E by $15 \%$. We also upward revise our valuation multiple for its standalone business to $7 x$ FY 10E EV/EBIT DA (from $6 x$ earlier) on improved visibility and declining concerns with the balance sheet (like debtor days in line with industry norms). The newspaper business is valued at Rs 132 per share.
The announcement of floor price for the two new teams in IPL (theseteams will play in IPL 4) will act as a benchmark for valuing the existing teams in IPL. We believe that IPL is a very strong media property to own and value Deccan C hargers, the $100 \%$ subsidiary of DCHL, at Rs 26 per share. We arrive at a SOTP valuation for DCHL at Rs 158 and assign no value to its retail subsidiary. M aintain O utperformer.
