

THE INDICATOR
MARKET SUMMARY

After shedding more than 3% in the previous session, markets had a good opening today. However, the bears soon tried to outweigh the bulls by sending both the benchmark indices into the red. But the bears couldn't lay down the indices for long as buying in the index heavyweights emerged, which aided the benchmark indices to close near the day's high. By closing, the Nifty and the Sensex had gained 78 and 260 points to finish at 4153 and 14249 respectively.

Among the sectorial indices, Capital Goods was the front-runner edging up 3.4% followed by FMCG and Metal. On Sensex, BHEL, REL, Tata Steel, ITC and Bharti all marched in excess of 4% whereas Tata Motors was down 2.4%. The advance decline ratio on BSE was 2:3.
