Sun Pharmaceuticals : Caraco receives FDA warning letter, market may have over reacted

Prashant Vaishampayan : prashant.vaishampayan@kotak.com, +91-22-6634-1127 Priti Arora : priti.arora@kotak.com, +91-22-6749-3596

- Caraco receives warning letter; some of the observations are repeated from observations in the June 2008 warning letter
- Caraco continues to receive approvals (8 ANDAs approved YTD) and Sun received one last night
- No impact on revenues and production expected. Caraco expects to reply within the next two weeks
- Maintain BUY rating with an SOTP-based target price of Rs1,870
- Use weakness in stock to BUY

On October 31, 2008, Caraco received a warning letter from the FDA. The company was also issued a notice on Form 483 in June 2008. The observations set forth in this warning letter include, among other things, the inadequate and untimely investigation by the quality control unit of certain incidents at the facility contrary to the company's standard operating procedures. The FDA considered some of its observations to be repeat observations. According to the company, the problem relates to a previous incident of mixing up of APIs at the material dispensing stage. This was noted during the production process and the material was never converted into finished products. During the recent inspection, FDA asked Caraco about internal control it has put in place to avoid a repeat of this. Caraco has received approvals for seven ANDAs relating to two products since the inspection that concluded in June 2008. We maintain our BUY rating with an SOTP-based target price of Rs1,870. Use weakness in the stock to BUY; Sun Pharmaceuticals remains one of our top two picks in large cap pharma.

Caraco received warning letter from FDA for its Detroit plant. On October 31, 2008, Caraco received a warning letter from the FDA. The letter was issued as a follow up to the last FDA inspection of the manufacturing facility in Detroit. At the time of publishing this note, the letter was not available on the US FDA website and we are not aware of precise issues raised by FDA. We would comment on the seriousness of the issues raised once this letter is available.

According to the company, the problem relates to a previous incident where APIs were mixed up at the material dispensing stage. This was noted during the production process and the material was never converted into finished products. Therefore, never reached American patients.

During the recent inspection, FDA noticed papers relating to the incident and asked Caraco about internal controls the company has put in place to avoid a repeat of the situation. In addition, the FDA also sought documentary proof that all products sold by Caraco contained API as mentioned in the product label. FDA is now in the process of reviewing all these past records to satisfy themselves that quality standards were maintained. Sun expects to revert to US FDA in the next two weeks. It is not possible to surmise as to how long the FDA will take to arrive at a decision.

Until the company's responses to the observations have been clarified and explanations provided to the satisfaction of the FDA, the FDA may, in the near term, withhold approval of pending new drug applications listing the facility as the manufacturer.

Caraco continues to receive ANDA approvals (eight ANDAs relating to three products approved YTD) Caraco filed one NDA relating to one product and four ANDAs relating to three products with the FDA YTD and has received approval for eight ANDAs relating to three products YTD. This brings Caraco's total number of ANDAs pending approval to 23 (including four tentative approvals relating to 19 products and one NDA product pending approval). 19 out of 96 ANDAs of Sun Pharma that are now pending approval with FDA are from Caraco.

Caraco's present product portfolio includes 53 prescription products, in 115 strengths, in various package sizes. These include both Caraco manufactured products as well as products distributed for Sun. The products cover the following therapeutic areas: hypertension, arthritis, epilepsy, diabetes, depression and pain management.

The FDA concluded an inspection in June 2008 and seven approvals relating to two products have been received since June 2008. The inspection in June 2008 was a general cGMP inspection and pre-approval inspection for three products. The company was issued a notice on Form 483. Caraco has responded accordingly and has received approvals for seven ANDAs relating to two products since the inspection that concluded in June 2008.

Several measures have been taken to improve compliance as below

- Caraco has invested in more automation for improved quality and increase in output with less human intervention
- During FY2008, and currently in FY2009, in addition to its own internal audits, Caraco has retained independent companies to audit its laboratory as well as manufacturing areas
- The company continues to grow its analytical staff, currently at 69 employees, thereby enabling the laboratory to better cope with an increased workload with improved timeliness, higher quality, and increased cGMP compliance
- The company continues to provide external training to employees as a supplement to internal training in order to improve and maintain systems of operation. All audits are based on a historical look back and offer improvements based on Caraco's future requirements. The audits also included follow up on recommendations of best practices made by the FDA.
- The lab facility has also undergone major upgrades, including a significant increase in working space to improve analyst efficiency and safety. Additional lab instruments and equipment have been purchased which will enable increased compliance with cGMP requirements, cut future costs by enabling in-house rather than contract analyses, and speed sample testing.

Caraco guides towards FY2009E sales growth of 25%. In the recently concluded quarterly results release, Caraco management stated, "Our internal efforts, combined with Sun Pharma, in developing new products continue to pick up momentum and should permit us to grow at the level of our guidance. The current level of growth is at a high level which may not be sustainable. Based on our current distribution and sale and marketing agreements with Sun Pharma and our internal portfolio of products and future approved products, we believe we will achieve 25% growth in sales for Fiscal 2009, compared to Fiscal 2008. "

Maintain BUY rating with a SOTP-based target price of Rs1,870. We believe the stock has corrected on the back of this news and do not see any more downside till further clarity emerges from US FDA. Sun Pharma own 76% of Caraco (market cap around US$350 mn). Since the stock closed down around 5%, removing US$235 of Sun's market cap, we believe the risk of a further decline in share price is limited. The market has effectively eliminated the entire value of Caraco holding from Sun Pharma's market capitalization. This, we think, is an over-reaction since Caraco continues to be in business. We continue to rate Sun Pharma a BUY and advise investors to use this weakness to accumulate the stock.
