SENSEX DAILY CHART

Source: Advanced Get

Outlook for the day

After the bad start, markets has sharply bounced from the lower levels due to short covering in the front line stocks which led the indices close near to days high's. In the coming trading session, a bounce from the current levels cannot be ruled out. Any sustainable up move above 13560 / 4100 levels, indices may rally up to 13640 - 13730 / 4130 – 4160 levels. On the downside, 13360 – 13300 / 4025 – 4000 levels may act as support for the day. Short-term traders should use every rally to exit their long positions or even go short near to resistance level.
