RIL bids for LyondellBasell

Reliance has firmed up on news that it has made an estimated $10-12 billion offer for a controlling interest in LyondellBasell Industries.

LyondellBasell is a $50.7 billion polymers, petrochemicals and fuels Dutch company owned by ProChemie GmbH, a joint venture of Access Industries and ProChemie Holding.

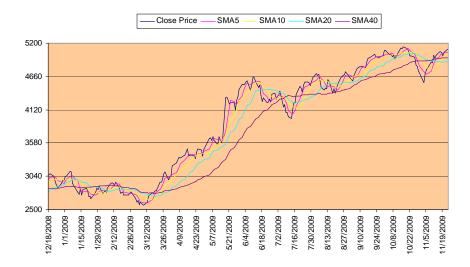

In January, LyondellBasell had voluntarily filed to reorganise its US operations and one of its European holding companies under Chapter 11 of the US Bankruptcy Code to restructure the company's debts.
