Markets opened on a flat note and traded with negative bias in the early hour of trade but smartly bounced back in the wake of better than expected GDP numbers which lead the indices to close in green. On the daily charts we are witnessing that the momentum oscillators have exited the oversold zone and are positively poised. Hence, in the coming trading session if indices trade convincingly above 19610 / 5892 levels then they are likely to test 19740 – 19835 / 5950 – 5975 levels. On the downside 19220 – 19089 / 5750 – 5730 levels may act as support for the day.
