

THE INDICATOR
MARKET SUMMARY

While their Asian peers were closed today, our bourses opened almost flat. In the absence of any cues to follow from Asia markets, the benchmark indices failed to make a decisive move. After making day's high in the after noon session, profit booking saw the benchmark indices coming back the break-even in the last hour of trade. Nifty and Sensex closed almost flat at 6144 and 20301.

Realty, FMCG and Power indices advanced in excess of 2% each on the BSE whereas IT and Teck Indices gave up more than 1%. On BSE, REL and ITC were the top gainers and on the other hand, TCS and Bharti slid most. The advance decline ratio on BSE was 7:2.
