Public Council for Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment of the Russian Federation

First International online exhibition
«Inhabited island: Terra»

INFORMATION LETTER

About the exhibition

The first international online exhibition "Inhabited island: Terra" is held on the initiative of the Public Council for the Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment of the Russian Federation.

All works admitted to the exhibition (see requirements for works) will be publicly available at: <https://fotoecoexp.wixsite.com/inhabitedisland-2020>.

The exhibition is held in four nominations:

- "Unique": unique amateur photos (videos) of natural objects;
- "Cooperation": photos (videos) reflecting human activity in harmony with nature;
- "Antagonism": photos (videos) that reflect both the destructive activity of man in relation to nature and nature in relation to human creations.
- "Funny": photos (videos) that correspond to the first three directions, but contain elements of humor, comic situations that make the viewer smile.

According to the results of the exhibition, participants will receive electronic certificates, and will also be awarded diplomas for the best works according to the jury, as well as according to visitors. Each visitor during the exhibition will have the opportunity to rate the works (vote) and "share" them in social networks.
