

Join First Parish at the Jobs, Justice & Climate March in DC! Saturday, April 29th

- First Parish has booked two buses to travel to the Jobs, Justice & Climate March on April 29 in DC, calling for climate action 100 days into the new administration.
- We anticipate this will be a family-friendly event, and we look forward to traveling to DC together!
- Seats are open to all – we hope lots of folks from First Parish will be going, and seats are also open to friends from surrounding communities.
- Cost is $110 per person.
- Three ways to sign up:
 - ⇒ Sign up at coffee hour
 - ⇒ Send email to Kate Crosby cfcrosby@gmail.com or Berni Jenkins bernijenkins2@gmail.com.
 - ⇒ Fill out the online form at <https://goo.gl/forms/5a89IMmEXd87UDF32>

The March is organized by a broad coalition of more than 300 labor, racial justice and environmental groups, including:

- 350.org
- Sierra Club
- NAACP
- Indigenous Environmental Network
- Service Employees Internat'l Union
- Union of Concerned Scientists
- Natural Resources Defense Council
- Hip Hop Caucus
- GreenLatinos
- League of Conservation Voters
- Communication Workers of America
- People's Collective Arts/Colectivo de Arte Popular
- BlueGreen Alliance
- Chispa
- Climate Justice Alliance
- Amalgamated Transit Union
- Public Citizen
- Labor Network for Sustainability
- Grassroots Global Justice
- Climate Reality Project
- 300 more organizations

Art-making on April 23 at First Parish before the March – stay tuned for details...

For more information, contact anyone on the Environmental Leadership Team!