

OPEN CALL EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS AT FREIES RADIO INNSBRUCK FREIRAD

Starting with January 2020 you will have the opportunity to register for the European Solidarity Corps at Freies Radio Innsbruck FREIRAD (Austria) and to get involved with a community radio for 10 to 12 months.

What is it all about?

As a volunteer, you engage as a part of a colorful and international team at the Free Radio Innsbruck FREIRAD. You will get insights in the coordination of our radio program, the production of radio shows, the teaching of media, PR and many things more. Depending on your personal interests you can focus on one of this fields specifically. During this time, you will learn the technical and journalistic basics of the medium of radio. You will also have the chance to get in touch with the Tyrolian cultural scene, as FREIRAD has served to connect local art and cultural professionals for more than 15 years and acts as a platform for marginalised communities (migrants, refugees, LGBTQIA, women*, unemployeed etc.).

What are the requirements

You have to be 18 to 30 years old and live in one of the following countries:

https://europa.eu/youth/solidarity/faq_en

Apart from that you should be interested in media, politics, arts and culture and be open-minded. Last, but not least, you should be able to work independently and looking forward to learning new things.

German knowledge is not an obligation, but would be welcome.

How much does this cost?

The participation in the European Solidarity Corps is for free. The participating organisations – the sending and hosting organisations – will cover your costs for food, housing, mentoring and transportation. Furthermore they will also pay for a language class, an additional insurance and pocket money.

How can I participate?

For futher information please contact us (wir@freirad.at). We will answer all your questions concerning the application process and ourselves.
