

In support of Aerobility

FLY-IN AND PUBLIC OPEN DAY

Saturday 30th July, 2016

www.blackbusheairday.com

BLACKBUSHE
AIR DAY

FLY-IN AND PUBLIC OPEN DAY

Blackbushe Airport opens its doors to both the public and private pilots at the first Blackbushe Air Day. Fun, food and flying combine at what promises to be an exciting occasion with prizes for pilots and the public.

The first fifty fly-in arrivals will enjoy free landings and the sporting chance to win one of two prizes.

Prestige Signs are offering two prizes of 200 litres of aviation fuel, that's a 1:25 chance of winning!! Fly-in arrivals strictly on PPR basis.

ADMISSION FEES

£5.00 per visitor (under 2's go free)

Public open hours 11.00 to 17.00, gates open at 10.30.

Please help us support Aerobility, the charity that has done so much to help injured and disabled people experience the achievement, satisfaction and pure joy of flight.

Supporters

Further information for fly-in pilots and public guests on www.blackbusheairday.com

WHATS ON OFFER

- Free landings for aircraft under 2500 kgs
- Aircraft on show include historic fighter aircraft from the Second World War, the Army Historic Flight plus various vintage aeroplanes for you to inspect close up
- A rare chance to see an aircraft from the British Antarctic Survey
- Pleasure flights available for all in a vintage DH Rapide Biplane and modern helicopters
- Tasty Food & Drink
- Amusements for all the family
- Trade stands
- Competitions and Prizes for all visitors, public and pilots
- Flying schools open and providing information on learning to fly
- Aircraft pulling contest, see national and local business teams compete!!