Join us tomorrow for the Community of Practice on Sustainable & Regenerative Tourism Virtual Meeting

Wednesday, February 22 (10am Hawai'i | 3:00pm EST | 4:00pm AST)

The Local2030 Islands Network's Sustainable and Regenerative Tourism Community of Practice (CoP) supports islands in destination stewardship through learning from one another with the support of island experts.

Tomorrow's meeting of Local2030 Islands Network's Community of Practice for Sustainable and Regenerative Tourism will feature tourism stories from island tourism experts and practitioners from Aruba, the Cook Islands, Fiji, Hawai'i, and Puerto Rico, building upon on our December meeting's anchor presentation "Cutting through to clarity: Understanding and communicating sustainable and regenerative tourism" by Dr. Dianne Dredge, Director of the Tourism CoLab.

This CoP will convene virtually on Wednesday, February 22 to discuss sustainable, regenerative, and positive impact tourism stewardship, featuring bright spot presentations from Community of Practice members. We'd love to have you join us and engage with our distinguished panelists, including:

- Nildamarie Diaz, Sustainable Tourism Supervisor, Puerto Rico Tourism Company
- Salote Waiwalu, Senior Tourism Officer, Fiji Ministry of Tourism
- Tyson López, Sustainable Recreation Manager, Fundacion Parke Nacional Aruba
- Sieni Tiraa, Sustainable Tourism Advocate for the Cook Islands, Te Ipukarea Society
- Dr. Dianne Dredge, Director of the Tourism CoLab
- Dr. Pauline Sheldon, Professor Emerita, Univ. Hawai'i School of Travel Industry Management
