After starting with a subdued session, the benchmark Nifty rose to make a high of 5971.00 and then it fell to make a weekly low of 5835.80 on Friday of last week. At the end of week Nifty closed at 5850.30. It had a net loss of 0.63% over the previous week's close. On the sectoral front, selling pressure was witnessed in Consumer durable, Auto, FMCG, Banking and Metal stocks. However, IT, Health care and Realty stocks traded higher.

The Nifty has shed almost 4.5% from its recent peak of 6111.80 made on 29th January, 2013. Now it is expected to get a strong support near 5800. If Nifty breaches this level, the short term trend would become negative and it may further go down to 5720 and then 5650 in the short term. However, a breach of 5980 is likely to take Nifty higher to 6010 and then 6180. We recommend holding positions with stop loss of 5800.

For the coming week, first support of Nifty is at 5820 and the resistance is 5930. If Nifty breaks 5820, it may further go down to 5800 and then 5720. However, if Nifty is able to sustain above 5930, the level of 5980-6010 would become the next target.

Positional calls since January, 2012
