Elecon Engineering

Leverage risk persists; Retain Hold

- Meets expectations (1) Revenue up 20% yoy to Rs3.4 bn led by TE div. (+22%); MHE div. (+19%) (2) EBITDA mgn up 50 bps, TE EBIT mgn fall 70 bps (3) APAT up 10% to Rs156 mn
- Order inflows at Rs2.6 bn (down 47% qoq) YTD secured
  52% of FY12E target. Order book healthy at Rs14.4 bn
- Debt remains high at 1.3X. EEL in high capex mode despite strained cash flow position – plans to spend Rs1-1.2 bn in FY12E (equal to past 2 years capex spends)
- We maintain our earnings estimates with H2FY12E asking rate undemanding at 14% yoy, but risks to earnings remain. Retain HOLD rating with price target of Rs61 per share

Meets expectations - Net profit growth at 10% yoy to Rs156 mn

Elecon Engineering (EEL) reported healthy revenue growth at 20% yoy to Rs3.4 bn, ahead estimates – led by both divisions (MHE up 19% yoy) and (TE up 22% yoy). EBITDA grew by 24% yoy to Rs0.5 bn – led by 50 bps yoy improvement in EBITDA margins to 14.7%. Expansion in EBITDA margins was lower than estimates of 15.0% mostly due to impairment provisions on JVs in Australia and South Africa (total of Rs50-60 mn provision made in H1FY12 – mostly in Q2FY12 as per the management). High interest charges partially offset strong operational performance. Consequently, 10% yoy growth in net profits to Rs156 mn was in line with estimates (but adjusting for provision – net profit is above estimates)

MHE division - Strong performance

After 4 quarters of subdued performance, Material Handling Equipment (MHE) division saw sharp all round improvement in performance. Led by healthy opening order backlog, revenues grew 19% yoy to Rs1.9 bn – ahead estimates. EBIT margins expanded by 60 bps yoy to 13.3%, ahead estimates – attributed to benefits from operating leverage and favourable revenue mix.

TE division – EBIT margins fall sharply by 70 bps

Transmission Equipment (TE) division continued to witness strong revenue growth - revenues grew 22% yoy to Rs1.5 bn, meeting expectations. However, EBIT growth at 16% yoy to Rs0.2 bn was below estimates – due to 70 bps yoy drop in EBIT margins to 13.8% (lowest in past 20 quarters). Sharp drop in margins was attributed to higher contribution from low margin standard products and commencement of new facility.

Order inflows at Rs2.6 bn, Order book at Rs14.4 bn

EEL secured orders worth Rs2.6 bn (up 25% yoy and down 47% qoq) and YTD Rs7.4 bn (52% of FY12E target). Deceleration in order inflow momentum is not a cause of concern, in view of healthy order bid pipeline and low asking rate for H2FY12E. Order backlog declined marginally by 6% qoq to Rs15.2 bn – split as Rs11.7 bn for MHE and Rs3.5 bn for TE. The MHE backlog dominated by Power (49%) followed by Mining (23%), Cement (9%), Port (8%) and Steel (6%). Also MHE backlog contribution has again swung in favour of longer execution Projects - contributing about 65% of backlog.

Debt remains high at 1.3X; EEL in high capex mode – plans to spend Rs1-1.2 bn in FY12E

EEL's standalone debt remained stable at Rs5.3 bn in Sep'11 (Vs Mar'11) – with no improvement in working capital situation. Correspondingly, DER continues to remains high at 1.3X. We believe that EEL's DER will remain stretched in the near future as EEL remains in high capex mode and strained cash flows. It plans to spend Rs1.0–1.2 bn in FY12E – this is equivalent to total capital expenditure incurred in FY10 and FY11 together and 1.5X FY11 operating cash flow. EEL plans to spend on capacity expansion in TE division (on standard helical gears) and regular maintenance of plants (no specific details given).

Retain FY12E and FY13E earnings estimates, Maintain Hold rating

Post revision in earnings (through our report dated 22 Oct'11 – Delusional optimism to reality) and healthy performance in Q2FY12, H2FY12E asking rate is undemanding at 14% yoy. We maintain our earnings estimates of Rs8.2 for FY12E and Rs8.3 per share for FY13E. However, risks to earnings remain from (1) concerns on profitability of incremental order inflows (2) profitable execution of current order backlog (3) high DER at 1.3X (Sep'11) amidst high capital expenditure planned. We retain HOLD rating with price target of Rs61 per share
